

Note: Most references from edges to vertices are omitted for clarity.

Note: Partner references are needed to delete a node in time proportional to its degree. See README for two alternative representations.

Vertices (application representation)

Vertices (internal representation)

Adjacency lists

Sample WUGraph (weighted undirected graph) representation. You are not required to implement it exactly as illustrated here. This is just a suggestion.